

Housing options in Zaragoza

Accommodation is not included in the tuition and registration fees. The MABS team will help students find the most suitable housing option (residence halls, shared apartments or host families). Most options are located in some of the most vibrant neighborhoods of the city with easy access to all that Zaragoza has to offer. There is a free bus service between Zaragoza and MABS campus.

Hall of Residence/Dorms

Since Zaragoza is an important university city, with a large student population of approximately 50,000 students, there are several Residence Halls or Dorms where to stay, some sponsored by private companies and others founded by the University of Zaragoza itself. Some Residence Halls offer single rooms as well as shared rooms, (either with en-suite or shared bathroom), some may include meals in the price other not but they offer cooking facilities. Prices range from 500 to 800 eur per month.

Shared Apartment

Most students in Zaragoza choose to share apartments with other students. Depending on the kind of apartment (with or without heating, lift, etc.) the average monthly price for a room is between 250 and 350 eur per month. You can find one on many of the shared apartment browsers or the MABS team can help you find the right flat for you. A complete apartment can cost between 500 and 700 eur a month.

Host family

This is a good option if you want to improve your Spanish, and get to know the Spanish culture and customs and enjoy home-made local cuisine. If you like this option, the MABS team can help you find a host family in Zaragoza. Host families vary but all provide students with full board accommodation (a room plus 2 or 3 meals a day). The average rate is between 600 and 700 eur per month.
